ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO, SATURDAY MAY 21, 1904.

NUMBER 140

PRESBYTERIANS MEET.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 19.—The 145th annual session of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. was held at the Buffalo Convention hall. The assembly was opened by the Rev. Dr. J. H. McCall, moderator, who read the opening prayer. The Rev. Dr. J. H. McCall, moderator, who read the opening prayer. The Rev. Dr. J. H. McCall, moderator, who read the opening prayer.

The session began today with the reading of the minutes of the last year's session. The Rev. Dr. J. H. McCall, moderator, who read the opening prayer. The Rev. Dr. J. H. McCall, moderator, who read the opening prayer.

Another question of far-reaching importance touches the color line in the Presbyterian church. For some years past overtures have come to the general assembly asking the privilege of establishing separate Presbyteries for white and colored ministers in the same territory. Such a proposition has always been defeated, and it is expected the committee in charge of the question, and which has been deliberating on it for the past year, will again report against it.

Another important committee which is to report at the present session is that which is known as the $20,000,000 committee on the endowment of colleges, especially in the west. This committee will submit a plan for raising the needed money, and this report will doubtless provoke much discussion.

THE SOUTHERN PRESBYTERIANS

Mobile, Ala., May 19.—The annual session of the general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church was called to order today by the retiring moderator, Rev. Abner C. Hopkins, D. D., of Charleston, West Virginia. About two hundred commissioners were in attendance, half being ministers and half ruling elders. They represented about eighty Presbyteries and more than one million communicants, scattered variously over the states of Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, North Carolina, South Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas and Missouri and Indian Territory.

THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIANS

Dallas, Tex., May 19.—The general assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian church convened in Dallas this morning. It is estimated that the attendance is over 500. The commissioners represent Presbyteries in the territory extending from Pennsylvania to California and from Iowa to Louisiana. The session of the retiring moderator occupied the most of the opening session.

At the opening session telegrams of congratulation were exchanged with the Presbyterian general assembly which began its session in Buffalo today. The consolidation of the two denominations, which has been agitated for years, is one of the foremost matters to receive attention at the present assembly. It is expected that both assemblies will take action favorable to the proposed amalgamation. Other matters affecting the doctrine and discipline of the church will be considered and acted upon during the week or ten days the assembly will be in session.

THE NEW BISHOP OF ALBANY

Albany, N. Y., May 19.—The consecration of the Rev. Richard H. Nelson of Philadelphia as coadjutor of the Episcopal diocese of Albany took place in this city today and was the most brilliant ceremony of the kind that has ever taken place in Albany. It began at All Saints Cathedral at 10:20 o'clock this morning and continued several hours. There at sundown were crowded to the doors and hundreds would have liked to secure tickets of admission, but were refused. Interest in the occasion was increased by the promise of the participants. The three consecrating bishops were the Right Rev. William Croswell Doane of Albany, Right Rev. O. W. Whitaker, D. D., of Philadelphia, and Right Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster of Connecticut. The presenters were the Right Rev. Charles T. Olin, bishop coadjutor of central New York and Right Rev. Mack A. Smith, bishop coadjutor of Pennsylvania. The sermon was preached by the Right Rev. Arthur C. Hall, D. D., bishop of Vermont.

MARKET LETTER.

Special Correspondence.
Kansas City, Mo., May 19.—Supply of young brood stuff last week was moderate. There was quite a sprinkling of good brooded eggs, Kansas brood, which, for quality, compared well with the natives, and sold about even with the latter. Most of the western eggs have been light weights, and have sold well, because that class of buyers was wanted more than the heavier ones. Colorado steers averaging 1,200 to 1,250 sold at $4.50 to $4.60, and light weight fed westerns up to $4.70. Rates of fed stuff were a shade lower than previous week. 1,000 lb. Colorado feeders brought $4.20, as good as any time the previous week. Common kinds of stockers and cows were lower. Fat western feeders declined 15 to 20 cents for the week, as light butcher stuff has been considered too high recently. Some 971 lb. feeders sold at $2.35 Thursday, and 750 lb. western feeders brought $4.32½ Wednesday. A few western cows were received, and sold steadily with previous week. They were medium quality, and sold from $2.30 to $2.15. Stock calves were lower, also veal calves. Some southwestern stock steer calves of good quality sold at $4.00 to $4.25, weighing 250 to 280 lbs. Supply today is a normal Monday's run of 5,000 head. Market steady on beef steers, strong on stockers, feeders and butcher stuff.

Sheep supply last week was 15,400, about one-half of the supply of same week last year, at which time Texas grassers were coming in fast. The prices advanced 5 to 10 cents in spite of the averaged poor quality. Some woolled lambs brought $5.45, the first part of the week, and nothing good was received later. Run today is 5,000 head; market steady. Woolled Colorado lambs sold at $4.40 today; clip-ped western lambs, $5.75. Westerns were worth up to $5.25; ewes, $5.00. Texas grass sheep sold from $4.50 to $5.00. The good ewes are expected to remain, as receipts are bound to be short for some time to come.

AFTER FAMOUS ADAMS DIGGINGS

GOVERNOR OTERO AND SECRETARY RAYMONDS TRY TO MAKE A WONDERFUL FIND.

A pretty story is being told in Albuquerque today to the effect that Governor M. A. Otero and Secretary of Territory J. W. Reynolds have gone south to hunt for the famous lost Adams diggings, which, some prospectors say, are located in the Cuchillo Negroas of Sierra county. The governor and secretary went south the other evening, and a little mischief-maker tells The Citizen that they are out hunting for hidden treasures, which, according to advice which they had previously received, they expected to find. These Adams diggings have cost many a poor prospector his life, and during the bloody days of twenty odd years ago, when Victorio and Geronimo rode rough shod over the southern counties with their bands of renegade Apaches, only a few of the most daring white prospectors ventured out in search of these supposed fabulously rich placers, and they never returned to civilization to give any account of their trip.

Circumstances have changed since then—Victorio, Geronimo and the blood-thirsty bands have been whipped into submission, some being killed, and these diggings may yet be found. Who knows but what Governor Otero and Secretary Reynolds may find them? If there is a smile on their faces when they return north in a few days, it will be an indication that they have located the wonderful gold-producing placers; but if not—don't say anything to them about the Adams diggings.

The Uteville and Kodak store of J. P. Hinton has undergone spring housecleaning, and is spick and span in new paper and a coat of kalamintine. Dr. Beber, the optician, has arranged a new office in the front of the store.

Death at Bernalillo.

Mrs. Loretta Gonzales de Montoya died Tuesday evening at her home in Bernalillo of the infirmities of old age. She was 75 years old, a native of Santa Fe county and a sister of the late Nazario Gonzalez, who died at Cienega three weeks ago. The remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery at Bernalillo yesterday. Miss Vicenta Montoya, her granddaughter, who left Santa Fe Tuesday afternoon for the funeral of the deceased, reached there in time to see her die. Deceased was an excellent woman in every respect and very pious.

THE JUDGESHIP

OUTSIDE RECOMMENDATIONS AS TO MANN'S FITNESS AND ABILITY FOR JUDGESHIP REQUIRED.

The fight for appointment to the office of associate justice of the territorial supreme court is still open and will not be settled for several days, says a dispatch from Washington. Delegate Holey has endorsed Edward A. Mann of Las Cruces, having received within the last few days many telegrams from New Mexico urging him to do so. It is understood that Judge A. A. Freeman of California will not be considered for appointment. The president is quite well posted on the qualifications of the several New Mexico candidates. It is said that Edward A. Mann who has the strongest territorial endorsement, will be required to furnish endorsement from his old home in Nebraska before his name can be favorably considered.

A. C. Campbell, who is an assistant attorney in the office of the assistant attorney general in the department of the interior, was appointed to this position from Roswell and still holds his legal residence in New Mexico. He therefore cannot be considered an outsider. Mr. Campbell said that should be for any cause leave the department of the interior, he would return to Roswell, which place he considers his legal residence and home, for the practice of his profession. He has some very fine endorsements as to his legal ability, his experience as a lawyer and his standing as a man and a citizen for many years. The two Wyoming senators have an endorsed him; Victor Moravitz, general counsel of the Santa Fe railway system has written a strong letter in his behalf, and other persons of prominence and influence are also supporting him. From the Pecos valley, the report has reached here that if Judge Freeman cannot be appointed, Mr. Campbell's nomination would be satisfactory to the people there. The result at this writing cannot be conjectured.

Life is a count of losses.
Every year.
For the week are heavier crosses.
Every year.
Lost Springs with sobbing sighing.
Tinge every Autumn's sighing.
While those we love are dying.
Every year.

The days have less of gladness.
Every year.
The nights more weight of sadness.
Every year.

Fair Springs no longer charm us.
The winds and weather harm us.
The threats of death alarm us.
Every year.

There come new cares and sorrows.
Every year.
Dark days and darker morrows.
Every year.

The ghosts of dead loves haunt us.
The ghosts of changed friends taunt us.
And disappointments haunt us.
Every year.

To the past go more dead faces.
Every year.
As the loved leave vacant places.
Every year.

Everywhere the sad eyes meet us.
In the evening dusk they greet us.
And to come to them greet us.
Every year.

"You are growing old!" they tell us.
Every year.
"You are more alone," they tell us.
Every year.

You can win no new affections.
You have only recollections.
Deeper sorrows and dejections.
Every year.

Too true! Life's shores are shifting.
Every year.
And we are seaward drifting.
Every year.

Old places, changing, fret us.
The living more forget us.
There are fewer to regret us.
Every year.

But the truer life draws nigher.
Every year.
And the Morning Star climbs higher.
Earth's hold on us grows slighter.
And the heavy burden lighter.
And the Dawn Immortal brighter.
Every year.

—Albert Pike, Supreme Grand Master of Masons.

MISS STELLA BOATRIGHT

GAVE GRADUATING RECITAL AT MUSIC HALL LAST NIGHT.

Miss Stella Boatright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Boatright, of 215 South High street, gave her graduating recital from the University of New Mexico School of Music at the library hall last night, assisted by the faculty of the music department. The attendance was exceedingly large and the entertainment was highly complimentary to both Miss Boatright and her instructors. In her recitation last night, Miss Boatright exhibited wonderful talent as a pianist, her tones to the ivory keys and the warm response of the instrument, evincing clearly the player's thorough acquaintance with the art.

Prof. Krebs, Mrs. H. B. Bennett and Mrs. H. B. Bennett assisted Miss Boatright.

At Library hall at 7 o'clock tomorrow afternoon will occur the public recital of the School of Music, and on Monday Miss Helen Pratt will give her graduating recital. Miss Boatright's recital will occur next Monday night.

INTO DISTRICTS.

The politicians are very busy doing the work of the supreme court in formulating new judicial districts. The supreme court ought and no doubt will, redistrict the territory into judicial districts with a view to the interests of the litigants, the bar, the judge and the expense of running the courts. The members of the supreme court are better qualified to make such judicial districts conform to the best interests of all concerned than the politicians or the business interests of particular localities clamoring for the headquarters of the district. The citizens would suggest the following division:

First district—Santa Fe, Taos, Rio Arriba and San Juan.
Second district—Bernalillo, Sandoval, Valencia and McKinley.
Third district—Donna Ana, Luna, Grant, Sierra and Socorro.
Fourth district—San Miguel, Mora, Colfax, and Union.
Fifth district—Otero, Lincoln, Torrance and Leonard Wood.
Sixth district—Ally, Chavez, Roswell and Quay.

Some are taking of this division, taking Donna Ana from the Third district as suggested, and adding it to the Fifth, while others are suggesting leaving this division, with the exception of adding Socorro to the Second.

Michigan Republicans.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 19.—Four delegates at large to the national republican convention at Chicago are to be chosen at the convention of Michigan republicans which was called to order in the Auditorium shortly before noon today by Senator Burrows. It is expected that the convention will be harmonious so far as the choice of delegates is concerned, and that the administration of President Roosevelt will be endorsed and the delegates pledged to vote for his nomination at Chicago. The state convention to nominate a state ticket will be held at Detroit later in the summer.

California Republicans.

Sacramento, Cal., May 19.—The republican state convention is being held here today for the selection of delegates to the Chicago convention. The platform will come out strongly for Roosevelt's re-nomination. The only uncertainty in connection with the gathering relates to the selection of a new state committee. In this considerable interest is manifested, as it will have a bearing on the state campaign two years hence.

Wyoming Republicans.

Laramie City, Wyo., May 19.—Wyoming republicans are holding a state convention here today for the selection of delegates to the national convention. The party is a unit for Roosevelt, and the delegates to Chicago will be instructed to vote for his re-nomination.

HAPPY GRADUATES

A PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT LAST NIGHT—THE EXERCISES THIS EVENING.

Seniors, juniors, admiring parents of graduates and pupils, and spectators crowded library hall last night to attend the class day exercises of the 1904 graduating class, composed of four pretty young ladies, and their juniors. It was the biggest scholastic demonstration of the school term and was thoroughly enjoyed. The witty papers of the participants were highly entertaining and lent in good naturedly, made the affair one of food remembrance to the principals.

The gym club part of the affair was equally as entertaining.

Tonight, the commencement. The 1904 commencement exercises will occur tonight at the Elks' opera house. Dr. Edward S. Parsons, dean of the Colorado college, will deliver the commencement address. There will be no valedictory, nor readings at the exercises.

of papers by the graduates.

The program will be as follows:
Invocation Rev. J. W. March
Aria (From Marriage of Figaro) Miss Summers
Address Social Ideals
Dr. Edward S. Parsons, dean of Colorado college.
Piano solo Merckel
Orchestra.
Presentation diploma Supt. A. B. Stroup
(K.) By the sea—Metropolitan Air-Club.
High school song—Miss Hottel
Glee Club.

Hon. Felix Martinez, a prominent and wealthy citizen of El Paso, who is financially interested in certain enterprises at Las Vegas, came in from the south this morning, and during his brief sojourn in the city was a pleasant caller at this office. He continued on to Las Vegas on the delayed No. 2 passenger train.

COL. DAN PACKARD.

THE SWARTHY YANKEE RETURNS TO OLD MASSACHUSETTS MUCH IMPROVED IN HEALTH.

Col. Dan Packard, the Swartthy Yankee, who the past year has been a familiar figure in driving about the city of debating the momentous questions of the day in the lobby of the Alvarado, left this afternoon for Denver. After a short stop at Denver, he will go to St. Louis, and thence to Brockton, Mass., where after eighteen months' leave of absence he will again take up his duties as traveling manager and auditor for W. L. Douglas, the shoe manufacturer.

Dan Packard is a mighty good man and his many friends in Albuquerque will miss him. He was a public benefactor, and many are the needy of this city who have been grateful to his charity.

But he was so modest in his benevolence, keeping his good deeds guarded secrets, that very few of his many charitable acts reached the public view. Twice has the representative of the Citizen known Col. Packard to intercede for the friendless and helpless invalids, securing for them in their last days on earth care and medical attendance at St. Joseph's hospital, defraying many of the expenses with his own purse, and then when life had received their sufferings, he assisted in shipping the bodies to sorrowing mothers, wives, brothers and sisters in far eastern cities. He was a benefactor to the Indians of the Navajo colony at the Alvarado Carlo. If one had the toothache, he or she was promptly taken to a dentist and Col. Packard settled the bill. The Indians looked to him as their preserver and they were all up early this morning to give him a token of remembrance—a bit of pottery of their own make, a blanket or some other trinket of their primitive fashion and to bid him goodbye—Jalane.

Col. Packard said before leaving that he would always have a warm spot in his heart for New Mexico. He had been much benefited by his visit. His general health is very much improved and he is thirty pounds to the good.

The good will of a large number of Duke city people will follow him in his travels wherever he may go.

SCHOOL TEACHERS

A. B. Stroup Retained as Superintendent—The List of Educators.

SPECIAL MEETING OF BOARD

At a special meeting of the school board held last night, Superintendent A. B. Stroup was retained as the head of the Albuquerque public schools for another year, this being his third year.

The matter of ward teachers was also taken up and the present teachers retained, with the exception of Miss Adams of the Second ward, who will leave at the close of school for California. Miss Adams has been a faithful teacher in the Albuquerque schools for six years and as her health is somewhat impaired, she declined to apply for a position next term.

The application of Miss Jean Bonard, sister of Mrs. Ed H. Harrah, was the only new applicant considered last night and it was accepted.

The present teachers, who were re-appointed last night, are as follows:
Central Building—High School, J. A. Miller, principal, mathematics and science; Sadie R. Leavitt, English and botany; Miss Fitch, special teacher, music and drawing; Nancy Hewitt, Latin and history; Mrs. C. O'Connor, Spanish and Librarian.

Mrs. Ella M. La Bar, Ella D. Coltrane, eighth grade; Nellie King, Margaret Hartman, seventh grade.

First Ward School.
Mrs. T. I. Butts, principal, first grade; Lucy Haselton, second grade; Marie L. Solheim, third and fourth grades; Jesse Bradford, fifth and sixth grades.

Second Ward School.

W. K. Preston, principal, fourth and sixth grades; Minnie McPhie, third grade; Lillie Kopers, first grade.

Third Ward School.

W. H. McFarland, principal, fifth and sixth grades; Staud Custer, fourth grade; Meta Tway, first grade; Mabel Hunt, third grade; Anna Thomas, second grade; Ida Elder, first grade.

Fourth Ward School.

C. Roy Kiser, principal, fifth and sixth grades; Ledia Moon, third and fourth grades; Edythe Everett, second grade; Flora Hartman, first grade.

Lee Building.

Miss Ethel Willey, third and fourth grades.

This latter school will likely be done away with when school opens in September, and Miss Willey will be stationed in some of the ward buildings.

The matter of assigning teachers is left to the superintendent.

New additions to all the ward buildings will be ready at that time, at least it is hoped so, and six new teachers will be added to the present forces.

Plans for the new additions to buildings are in the hands of contractors and bids for construction will be opened by the board at a special meeting next Monday night.

HEAVY LOSSES OF SHEEP.

DISTRESSING REPORTS COME FROM OTERO COUNTY.

This week a number of Tularosa, La Luz and Three Rivers sheep men and cattle men have been in Alamogordo, says the Journal. They all report such conditions grave. Pablo Chavez, merchant and sheep man of Tularosa, tells the Journal that out of 1,000 head of ewes he has not saved a lamb and about 200 of his ewes have died up to the present time. His losses have been about $2,000. Ambrose Vill, a neighbor of Mr. Chavez, sheared 585 head of sheep and has lost since 390 head of them and all the lambs. Andalecio Padilla of Three Rivers, has lost all his lambs and 200 ewes out of a herd of 2,000 head. His wool crop is also a total loss as so much of it shed that it did not pay to clip what remained. His loss is, he says, about $5,000. His neighbors have also lost heavily. Mr. Padilla thinks that the prolonged drought has so diseased the sheep that the shedding of the wool has resulted.

Monroe Harrier of Three Rivers, a cattle man, says his stock are yet doing reasonably well and that he may sustain very little if any losses, but that the ranches around him and farther out on the plains are losing cattle.

MINE MOMUMENTS.

TO GOVERN ISSUE OF PATENTS AND IN SUITS—LAW PASSED BY CONGRESS LAST SESSION.

Delegate Holey has favored the bill with the following law providing that hereafter monuments erected by United States mineral surveyors on mining claims while making surveys, shall govern in disputes and patents of mining claims, passed within the last days of the recent session of congress.

He enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That section twenty-three hundred and twenty-seven of the revised statutes of the United States be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 2327. The description of vein or lode claims upon surveyed lands shall designate the location of the claims with reference to the lines of the public survey, but not conform therewith; but where patents have been or shall be issued for claims upon unsurveyed lands, the surveyors-general, in extending the public survey, shall adjust the same to the boundaries of said patented claims as they are officially established upon the ground. Where patents have been issued for mineral lands, those lands only shall be segregated and shall be deemed to be patented which are bounded by the lines actually marked, defined and established upon the ground by the monuments of the official survey upon which the patent grant is based, and surveyors-general in executing subsequent patent surveys, whether upon surveyed or unsurveyed lands, shall be governed accordingly. The said monuments shall at all times constitute the highest authority as to what land is patented, and in case of any conflict between the said monuments of such patented claims and the descriptions of said claims in the patent issued therefor the monuments on the ground shall govern, and erroneous or inconsistent descriptions or calls in the patent descriptions shall give way thereto."

AFTER A BIG FRANCHISE.

EX-GOVERNOR W. T. THORNTON ASKS TO PUT ELECTRIC LINE IN GUADALAJARA.

A dispatch from Guadalajara, Mexico, dated May 19, says: W. T. Thornton, former governor of New Mexico and now a resident of this city, has applied to the state government for a concession for the installation of electric street traction in this city. The application is made on behalf of the American capitalists and the sum of $15,000 in Mexican government bonds has been deposited as an evidence of good faith. The Americans are, in the event the concession is granted, to place $200,000 in the hands of the government for the pavement of Guadalajara streets.

Jose Marin Hernandez, the millionaire Spaniard of the City of Mexico, who owns the majority of the street railway lines in this city, is fighting the granting of the concession and is attempting to bring federal influence to bear in his favor. Governor Ahumada is in favor of giving the concession to the Americans and is now in the national capital in connection with the matter. Hernandez held a concession for electric lines in Guadalajara from 1895 to 1901, but failed to make any move toward their establishment. During the period his concession was in effect, Pittsburg capitalists opened negotiations with him for the purchase of the street railway lines, the city electric light plant, which is also the property of Hernandez, and the concession, but after several months the deal fell through. At that time Hernandez asked $1,700,000, silver, for the holdings mentioned, and it is now understood that he has raised the figures on the railway lines and lighting plant to $2,200,000.

What is now wanted by Hernandez is a renewal of the concession he held for five years for electric street car lines in this city. If the concession is granted the Americans they will not be compelled to buy the Hernandez mule lines, as the state government holds that the concession under which Hernandez is now operating does not give him exclusive right to the streets. The Americans propose, in the event they are successful, to se-
